BY DR. THOMAS M. ELLIOTT.
 Drastic Sunday laws will be in effect in Georgia—changes that will appear Puritanical to the great mass of people will be made—provided plans that will be presented either today or Monday to the North Georgia conference, now in session at the Wesley Memorial church meet with the favor of the conference and are authorized by the law makers of the land.

The committee on Sunday observance has already indorsed and will submit to the conference for adoption a resolution that asks congress to enact a law forbidding the operation of interstate trains on Sunday, the publishing of Sunday newspapers, the opening of postoffices on Sunday, all forms of labor on that day and the granting of a full day's rest to all governments

A movement to this effect was organized in the Tennessee conference some months ago and efforts are now being made to get other conferences to unite in the appeal to congress for the enactment of such a national law. Rev. Noah P. Cooper, of the Tennessee conference, addressed this conference on the subject Friday and appealed to the members to uphold the recommendation that the committee will submit either today or Monday. Wilson Calls On Americans To Give Thank

Washington, November 12.—President Wilson issued his Thanksgiving proclamation tonight, saying that "in plenty, security and peace our virtuous and self-reliant people face the future," and settling aside Thursday, November 25, for the usual observances. The text follows:

"The season approaches when it behooves us to turn from the distractions of a busy life to the quietude of reflection and prayer."

"This is an old observance of the American people, deeply imbedded in our thought and habit. The burdens and the stresses of

"We have abundant cause for thanksgiving. The lessons of the war are rapidly healing. The great army of freedom, which America sent to the defense of liberty, returning to the grateful embrace of the nation, has resumed the useful pursuits of peace, as simply and promptly as it rushed to arms in obedience to the country's call. The equal justice of our laws has received steady vindication in the support of a law-abiding people against various and sinister attacks, which have reflected only the baser agitations of war, now happily passing.

"In plenty, security and peace, our virtuous and self-reliant people face the future, its duties and its opportunities. May we have vision to discern our duties, the strength, both of

"In a spirit, then, of devotion and stewardship, we should give thanks in our hearts, and dedicate ourselves to the service of God's merciful and loving purposes to His children.

"Wherefore, I, Woodrow Wil-

mon, president of the United States, do hereby designate Thursday, the 25th day of November, next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, and I call upon my countrymen to cease from their ordinary tasks and vocations upon that day, giving it up to the remembrance of God and His blessings, and their dutiful and grateful acknowledge." 7

They were an extraordinarily merry party, and in the wee sma' hours they had signalled their way to what they took to be MacGregor's house. After they had hammered lustily on the door for some minutes a bedroom window opened and a mope-headed head appeared. "Scuse us," quoth the spokesman, "but ye're Missis MacGregor, aren't ye? ARGUMENTS IN CASE OF VICTOR L. BERGER
Chicago, November 12.—Arguments in the case of Victor L. Berger, under twenty-year sentence for violation of the espionage act, will be heard the week of December 6 before the United States supreme court, according to word received here today by Seymour Stedman, recent socialist candidate for vice president. Mr. Stedman immediately filed a brief asking dismissal of the case on the ground that the war is ended. He contended the resolution declaring the war with Germany at an end, passed by congress at its last session, is valid despite President Wilson's veto.

Why They Groaned.
(From Answers.)
Joshua Drake was looking round the only empty house in Great Britain—well, the only one you or I have heard about.
"Just a little bit old, isn't it?" he respectfully remarked to the house agent.
"Oh, no," replied the real estate agent, lifting his eyebrows in a significant manner at the thought. "This house is comparatively modern."
"But these stairs creak terribly," ventured the prospective tenant.
"Oh," explained the agent, "that is the latest modern improvement in houses! That is a patent burglar alarm staircase. No burglar can get up to the bedroom floor without waking you up!"

Judge J. R. Ross Is Making Fight For Judgeship

Macon, Ga., November 12.—(Special.)—In an open letter to S. G. McLondon, secretary of state, Judge John R. Ross today cites law to uphold his contention that the secretary of state has authority to certify the election of Judge Ross as judge of the superior court of Macon circuit, and again calls on the secretary of state to certify his election to the governor.

Judge Ross, in his letter, maintains that the law enacted by the last legislature providing for the appointment of an additional judge for this circuit, is unconstitutional insofar as the "appointment" is concerned, as he says the "vacancy" occurred more than thirty days before the election. In a letter to Judge Ross yesterday, Mr. McLondon stated he had no authority to certify the name of Judge Ross to the governor and asking Judge Ross to quote any law on the subject to uphold his contention. The law quoted by Judge Ross provides for certification of elected officers to the governor and the method of certifying election returns to the secretary of state and by him to the governor of the state.

Judge Ross expects to mandamus matter to the attention of the grand jury as soon as tangible evidence is officially offered to start an investigation, the solicitor said.

Governor Dorsey said he had not yet turned the affidavits, which he now has in his possession, over to Mr. Boykin and could not state what course of action he would follow in the matter. When questioned about an extra session of the legislature to order an investigation of the graft charges and related financial embarrassment of state educational institutions, he said that he had not decided to issue such a proclamation and could not indicate what his final decision would be.

Jackson Is Pleased.

"We are well pleased with the situation," said Marion Jackson, editor of The Bulletin, when told of the investigation, he started at the instance of Representative Barrett. "We will, of course, lend our moral support to an investigation of the charges, but I cannot speak for the league concerning further co-operation."

A large number of letters have been received at headquarters from all sections of Georgia as a result of the charges in The Bulletin and I am sure we have gained our object in awakening the public, and acquainting the incoming legislators of the conditions they will meet, unless an investigation brings an end to the situation," he continued.

"We desire to remove all obstacles from the path of the passage of constructive legislation in Georgia. In the past this has been one of its constructive bills lost on account of various obstacles, and we have as the purpose of this campaign to wipe out all alleged corruption and any other obstacles which will hinder the state in the future," he concluded.

EX-CONVICT NEARLY GOT SHIP BOARD

added they had gone "very high" in the board's personnel. He repeated previous testimony that no irregularities had been discovered among the board's officers. References were made, however, to department heads—particularly in southern district shipyards, where dismissals had taken place at his recommendations.

Spent $200,000 on $75,000 Ship.

One of these dismissals was brought about, he said, by what he termed undue and unnecessary expense in repairs to a wooden ship. The final repair bill on this ship, he said, amounted to fully $200,000 and the ship could not be sold today for $75,000.

Going into details of alleged graft among ship officers, he related details of a case on the steamship Dio. On this ship, he testified, three of its officers, including the captain, had managed to conceal the presence of 400 tons of fuel oil when it arrived from Rotterdam. At Norfolk more oil was taken aboard for a voyage to Rio de Janeiro. At this port the officers paid for the delivery of 1,000 tons of oil, the witness asserted, but through connivance with an employee of an oil delivery company only 600 tons were delivered.

The difference between the value of the 600 tons delivered and the 1,000 tons paid for—amounting to about $9,000—was "split" between the parties implicated in the transaction. The officers of the ship, in addition to the split, also took the usual "percentage" for sale. The captain, the witness alleged, also contracted with a repair company or certain alterations to the ship or which the board was charged $11,000.

The captain, the witness added, received $500 from this contract as "bit." It was afterward ascertained that a reasonable price for the repairs would have been about $2,000. Also before sailing the ship took aboard sufficient beef to last nine months, much of which was later thrown overboard, he said.

Indicted Captain Fled.

Meehan testified that the captain, chief engineer and another officer were indicted. The latter two confessed and received light sentences from the court. The captain was released on bond and is due to appear here for trial November 15. The witness said he had been informed, however, that the captain and his wife and "fourteen trunks" had sailed from Key West for Buenos Aires. The shipping board is now seeking him.

Details of alleged irregularities in overcharges to the shipping board vessels, collection of double fees and many other offenses have been run down, Meehan asserted, and in some cases restitution made and in others prosecutions instituted. Testifying as to commissions paid ship officers, he said that the majority of these were small—what he termed "petty grafting." One firm, however, refunded to the board $76,000 which it had paid in commissions in one year and in turn had charged to the board as "supplies."

The witness also testified that, in addition to prosecutions, he had "broken" a large number of officers—meaning that they could not again obtain positions at their profession. He said there were at least 25 old and efficient captains now ashore in New York because of the activities of his department. He further said that men guilty of drunkenness aboard ship were discharged.

Twelve Indictments Secured.

Mr. Meehan said that after investigations conducted under his personal supervision, six indictments against alleged transgressors of the law had been obtained, while an evidence obtained through investigations which he had not personally directed.

Mr. Meehan said that the twelve indictments had been returned after finding down something like $4,000 charges against various persons, each of which, he declared, had been thoroughly run down and either verified or disproved. The investigator remarked that his force of assistants which had once consisted of sixty men had been reduced to twenty-four.

Statement by McAdey.

When informed of the testimony given by Meehan, Mr. McAdey issued the following statement:

Some time after I left the treasury, my law firm, Cotton & Franklin, was associated with the regular attorneys of the Virginia shipbuilding company as counsel in a controversy which had arisen with the shipping board under a contract for the building of ships. Our relation to the matter was purely professional, entirely without the properties and beyond criticism. The resulting settlement was greatly to the advantage of the government.

Strike Stops Work.

New Orleans, November 12.—Work was stopped on six large buildings under construction here today when union iron workers went on strike for wage increases, aggregating two dollars per day. The men now receive $8 for eight hours' work. Contractors refused to grant the increase.

"How do you like your new car?" asked Diggs.

"Great," replied Baggs. "It runs so smoothly you can't feel it. Not a bit of noise; you can't hear it. Perfect ignition; you can't smell a thing. And speed—why it whizzes! You can't see it!"

NOBEL LITERARY PRIZE FOR SWISS AUTHOR

Stockholm, November 12.—The Nobel prize for literature for 1919 has been awarded to the Swiss author, Carl Spitteler.

The literature prize for 1920 was awarded some time ago to the Norwegian writer, Knut Hamsun, who some years ago lived in the United States and at one time was a street car conductor in Chicago. He was discharged from his job as conductor because he read books instead of collecting fares.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 50c

CRUSADE PLANNED ON HOME BREWING

Sales of Malt and Hops to Be Restricted—Orders to Cause Bitter Court Fight.

Washington, November 12.—The internal revenue bureau in formal statements today confirmed reports that a crusade against home brewing of alcoholic beverages is planned by the government's prohibition enforcement agencies. The bureau did not reveal, however, the methods

New Strength and Energy For the Weak and Aged

To be strong, vigorous and active you must have plenty of good, rich, red blood of the kind that organic iron—Nuxated Iron—helps make. Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, apples and apricots, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron filings. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It quickly helps make rich red blood, revitalize worn-out, exhausted nerves and give new strength and energy. For sale by all druggists. it proposed to employ in the campaign, nor admit that it had approved preliminary instructions by prohibition Commissioner Kramer directing that sales of malt and hops be restricted to bakers and confectioners.

"If malt, extract hops, isinglass gelatin or other materials are sold or advertised for sale in circumstances which show that they are advertised or sold for use in the unlawful manufacture of intoxicating liquor," said a statement issued tonight by Commissioner Williams, of the internal revenue bureau, "it is the purpose of the bureau to prosecute persons so offending."

"The so-called home-brewed beer manufactured in the home for beverage purposes, even though for the sole use of the family and bona fide guests, is, under the bureau's construction of the law, illegal and the sale of materials for the purpose of such manufacture is likewise illegal."

Orders Not Yet Approved. Commissioner Kramer was still absent from the city tonight and no authoritative statement of the nature of such instruction as he has already issued in the anti-home brew campaign was obtainable. The statement of the federal prohibition director of Ohio, however, that he had received instructions from Mr. Kramer to prevent sales of malt and hops except to bakers and to confectioners has not been denied by the internal revenue bureau, although it is understood that Commissioner Williams has not yet approved these specific orders.

There was an apparent difference of opinion between officials of the bureau of internal revenue and Commissioner Kramer's staff of advisers as to the powers granted under the Volstead act with respect to prohibiting the sale of articles employed in the manufacture of beer at home. Commissioner Williams conferred during the day with aides familiar with the act and this was followed by numerous other conferences in the bureau, the nature of which was not disclosed.

Officials of the prohibition unit declined to discuss any phase of the question. Assistant Commissioner Blies, of the prohibition staff, was among those who talked with Commissioner Williams but he would not say what conclusions were reached.

The only information obtainable at prohibition headquarters indicated that the order restricting the sale of malt and hops which the prohibition director referred to was in the form of confidential instructions sent to all enforcement officers. This method is commonly employed by Commissioner Kramer in all orders issued, no publicity being given to them except in unusual cases.

Statement by Williams. Commissioner Williams' statement declared it had never been the purpose of the internal revenue bureau to interfere with any legitimate business, but added that there appeared to have been a misunderstanding as to the right to manufacture malt liquors, even for home consumption.

In connection with the so-called home brewed beer, the statement continued, "the impression that prevails among some people that materials which ordinarily are or may be used in the manufacture of intoxicating liquors may be sold freely and legally even though sold for the purpose of making intoxicating liquor. When such materials are sold for the purpose of being converted into lawfully manufactured intoxicating liquors, such transactions, of course, are legal if the law and regulations with reference to such manufacture are complied with."

The commissioner cited provisions of the law which state specifically that articles and contrivances "intended to be used in the manufacture of liquor cannot be sold except under permit. It was indicated that prohibition officials believed they could restrict the sale of malt and hops under these provisions.

MALT-HOPS BAN TO CAUSE FIGHT.

Columbus, Ohio, November 12.—Suit to test the recent ruling of the prohibition enforcement bureau prohibiting the sale of malt extract and hops to any one except confectioners and bakers, was to be filed in the United States court here by a local distributing company.

Counsel for the company declared they will carry the case through to the United States supreme court. "They have no ground to stand on and no doubt will lose the case," said James A. Logan, prohibition director for Ohio, when informed of the action.

Malt and hops dealers here assert that their products are the main components of home brew. It was asserted by Timothy S. Logan, former attorney general, one of the counsel for the plaintiff, that both malt and hops, principal products sold, have many medical purposes and "much suffering will be caused if the sale is prohibited."

Columbus dealers, it was said, will fight to the last ditch the enforcement of the order.

FOUR BANDITS CLEAR BANK OF ALL ITS CASH

Kingsport, Ohio, November 12.—Four armed bandits, who today held up the First National bank here and occupied in and around the secured slightly less than $100,000 in government bonds and cash, C. E. Myers, cashier, said tonight, "I don't know how armed forces started out immediately after the robbery, no trace of the men had been found tonight."

The bandits cleared the bank of all cash and negotiable securities after forcing three employees, one of them girls into a back room of the bank. Pressing of a burglar alarm brought the village marshal and others in time to see bandits depart in their automobile after firing at the crowd.

TENTS ARE ORDERED FOR ALABAMA STRIKERS

Birmingham, Ala., November 12.—Fifteen hundred tents, it was reported, have been ordered by the United Mine Workers of America to house striking miners and their families evicted from company houses in the Alabama mining camps, according to Van A. Blinn, international representative in charge of the strike, who states that three hundred tents have already been pitched in the Walker county fields on private property immediately adjacent to the mines.

Brussels, November 12.—The monument which was erected by the Germans at Couillet, near Charleroi, Belgium, in memory of the battle of Charleroi, was blown up by dynamite by order of the municipal authorities yesterday, the anniversary of the signing of the armistice. An attempt to destroy the monument was recently made by private individuals.

COL. HAYWOOD HANSEL TO SUCCEED BRATTON

The Former Commander Has Been Ordered to Hot Springs for Duty.

Washington, November 12.—Lieutenant Colonel Haywood Hansel will succeed Colonel Thomas M.
Bratton as commanding officer of the Lawson general hospital, Atlanta, according to advices from the war department today. Colonel Bratton has been relieved as commanding officer of the Lawson general hospital and ordered to Hot Springs, Ark., for duty. Lieutenant Colonel Hansel, the ranking officer, automatically takes charge as commander.

At the war department it was said that Lieutenant Colonel Hansel might later be succeeded by some one appointed by the secretary of war, but if the secretary has any such intention he has not advised the adjutant general. So far as Adjutant General Harris knows, Colonel Hansel will remain as commander until ordered to duty at some other post.

ST. LOUIS IS SELECTED BY SOUTH'S DAUGHTERS

Asheville, N. C., November 12.—St.
Louis was over Birmingham for the 1921 meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, grand division, at the afternoon session of the twenty-seventh annual convention here.

Mobile also extended an invitation for the next meeting, but withdrawn when Birmingham asked for the convention. The sessions today proved to be the busiest yet held, with the attendance being over six hundred, in addition to several hundred who were present for the day.

Miss Decca Lamar West, of Texas, made an interesting report on the proposed trans-continental highway from Mrs. J. C. Brown. Several thousands of dollars were raised on the floor of the convention on an appeal from Mrs. Norman Randolph, of Virginia, chairman of the confederate women's life. One of the first subscribers was Mrs. Richard Lee, aged 91, of Philadelphia, who claims to be the oldest delegate.

Fort Carolina won the banner for having added the largest number of new members to the children's division in the year, 150 having joined in this state.

Tonight was observed as state president's day. Delegates from twenty-two of the 34 states were present with chapters. The convention will adjourn tomorrow night.

Rev. Jeremiah Wade Celebrates Birthday Of His First Wife

Rev. Jeremiah Mitchell Wade, of 48 Newport avenue, celebrated yesterday the anniversary of the birthday of his first wife, now dead, who became his sixteen children, thirteen of whom were boys. Preparation for the celebration consisted of all the children had been made, but some lived long distances and were not able to be present. Eight of the sons attended the celebration. An excellent dinner was served at 2 o'clock.

Rev. Mr. Wade and his present wife have three children—all boys.
He is probably the champion for the number of boys in Georgia, and also claims to have the largest family connection of any man here in the state. He has 13 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren, and is only 45 years old.

Rev. Mr. Wade is fond of outdoor life. He owns two fine horses, and when he takes trips across the state to visit his sons, advanced traveling rates does not worry him, for he makes the trip in a covered wagon. He will go to Washington, D. C., in a few weeks for the purpose of securing a patent on a healing salve he has prepared.

New Canal Project Favored by Delegates To Drainage Congress

At the closing session of the National Drainage Congress at the Pinecroft hotel, Monday morning, delegates unanimously favored the passage by congress of the bill providing for the construction of a canal to connect the Atlantic ocean with the Gulf of Mexico.

The final business was the election of officers for 1921. Edmund T. Perkins, of Chicago, was re-elected president. E. R. Jones, of Minnisota, Wis., was named first vice president, and Dr. F. H. Newell, of Washington, second vice president.

The delegates attended a banquet at Richardson's place at 4 o'clock. Later in the evening, a demonstration of the use of dynamite in draining lands, was given by the Dupont Powder company and took place along Nancy's creek near the Race Ferry road.

Some of the delegates returned to their homes in the west Friday evening, while others left for Washington, where they will attend Monday a meeting of the Atlantic-Mississippi Canal association.

WOODMEN OF ATLANTA HOLD MEETING FRIDAY

Atlanta Camp, 430, Woodmen of evening at their hall, 101-12 West applications and three transfers into their camp. After the usual routine of business was passed, the matter of membership of the World War Veterans, who held honorable discharges, was discussed and after several complimentary addresses a resolution prevailed to permit all veterans who held honorable discharges to be admitted free of the cost of initiation. The clerk was instructed to so advertise the motion in the daily papers.

ALLEGED FRAME-UP IN THE CONVICTION OF THOS. J. MOONEY

San Francisco, November 12.—The conviction and sentencing of Thomas J. Mooney here July 27, 1918, on charges of murder in connection with a preparedness day bomb explosion, were today being re-examined by a committee of the first to last. Police Officer Deane Hand, an important figure in the case, said in a statement submitted to Mayor James Rolph today, according to a story appearing today in The San Francisco Call.

Mayor Rolph late today said Hand had made a statement to him in regard to the Mooney case, but declared he had nothing to say regarding the use of the statement.

Hand, according to The Call, was active in the gathering of witnesses and witnesses showed signs of weakness before being called on to give their perjured testimony in the case.

They were, however, induced to do so through with the plan. A "corporate" witness made an important part in arranging the perjury program.
Hand declared.

POLAND AND GERMANY MAY WAR OVER SILESIA

Warsaw, November 12.—The declaration that war between Germany and Poland would be inevitable if the plebiscite to be held in Upper Silesia gives that region to Germany is made today in The Gazette Poranna in discussing the plebiscite.
The newspaper is the organ of the national democrats whose leader is John Dombek, undersecretary for foreign affairs. The Gazette Poranna predicts that another world war would result with France and Belgium joining Poland and Czechoslovakia.

"If England should enter this war it would mean, perhaps, the end of British world power."
The newspaper contends that Great Britain has shown certain leanings toward Germany in Sile-sian affairs and warns Britain to keep her hands off.

The date of the plebiscite in Silesia has again been postponed indefinitely. Meanwhile, unrest in the region continues.

Dreaded to Work

"I Felt Weak and Tired," Writes Tenn-esseean, Who Says He "Feels Fine"
After Taking Ziron.

HOW about our BLOOD?
Does it lack iron?
Are you pale, weak, anemic?
—so, better do something about it.

Take 7-ON Iron Tonic.
It is a tonic for your blood and nerves. It will help to build up your general system, strengthen your muscles and tone up sagged nerves.

Thousands have found Ziron beneficial.
After Mr. John Grant, of Route
1, Niota, Tenn., had taken Ziron, he wrote the following:

"I was all run-down, had no appetite, and when I went to bed I would get sick. I felt weak and tired. It was a dread to me to work. I went to the store and got Ziron, took it according to directions, and got better right straight.
I have just commenced taking another bottle. Am feeling fine."
If Mr. Grant hadn't noticed an improvement in his condition after trying a bottle of Ziron, he could have recovered the money that he paid for it.

So can you.

The Slaughter of the Innocents

"Three and a half million children call to the heart and resources of America for these daily supplies, not available in their own countries, that are vital to their survival and to the rebuilding of their physical well-being."

"Our resources will be exhausted in January."

"We must not step aside and permit the spectre of death, in the form of hunger and cold to haunt these helpless ones this winter, yet we can not continue without help."

"This is a charge on the American heart, and America can not fail in her solicitude for these little ones."

"Twenty-three million dollars must be raised without delay, and remembering the new heart you put into the Commission for Relief in Belgium in the dark hours of 1916, I come to you again."

(Signed) HERBERT HOOVER

From a letter to The Literary Digest

In immediate response the following editorial was published in The Literary Digest Oct. 30th:

WHEN JESUS CHRIST CAME upon the earth, nearly two thousand years ago, to save all mankind, his mere coming seemed to interfere with the material interests of a few people of that period, notably King Herod, who promptly decided to dispose of this "interloper," and sent forth his soldiers with orders to slay all the children of two years old and under. Thus was consummated the most atrocious crime against innocent childhood ever committed up to that time. It has come down to us through all the ages in song and story, and master painters have pictured it on marvelous canvases.

Today passing in review, as we look out through the windows of our comfortable homes in this great and happy land, are three and a half millions of helpless children, the innocent victims of the greatest war that has ever afflicted humanity. It matters not, as we gaze in the direction of these children that our eyes must stretch across three thousand miles of ocean, we still can see them and we still can hear them, if we wish to do so; and we cannot help hearing the tragic appeal in their voices and seeing their tiny arms stretched out to us, and their searching eyes looking into our souls, as they say, "Help us, or we perish." And if we fail to listen to this great call of three and a half millions of God's helpless children; if we close our eyes and ears to this great demand of duty, we shall be just as guilty of the "slaughter of the innocents" as was Herod, nearly two thousand years ago.

In these lands, swept by death and filled with tragedies too deep for tears, a sum of human suffering is being written greater perhaps than for all ages gone by. The mind grows numb and the heart sick from a constant recital of tales of such tragedy as it is difficult to believe the twentieth century could hold.

And so, when we received a letter from Mr. Hoover telling us that America must not allow death in the form of hunger and cold to come to these 3,500,000 helpless children, our soul was stirred and the hot blood surged up in our heart. We felt it was our imperative duty to use all the power God has given us to aid this noble-hearted American in continuing the work of saving human lives to which he has devoted unsparingly, and at great personal sacrifice, his tremendous energy and administrative genius during the past six years, in which time he and his American colleagues have administered two billions of dollars of relief funds from all parts of the world with a total overhead expense of only three-eighths of one per cent, with no remuneration to the American directors. Now he asks us all to help save the children who are in imminent danger of starvation this coming winter.

There they are, in the midst of wrecked homes, and farms, and factories; in cities crowded with masses of refugees without sustaining food for children, through the destruction of live stock; seeds for planting, raw materials, tools, and machinery gone; great areas with everything burned, or looted, or smashed; vast unemployment for workers; no means of subsistence; a land of economic ruin, of mutilated life, and lingering death; and in the midst of it all—the little children.

In long lines they are waiting at the American food-kitchens. Will the food be there for them? Will they be turned away? There are no happy, healthy faces in those long lines—not one. You have seen rags and barefooted children, but never so many little boys and girls literally drest in tatters. Soon it will be very cold, and for those bare little feet and legs and arms there is nothing at home to put on.

Hollow faces and shrunken bodies are so common that their real condition does not become evident until we inquire more closely, and then we find that most of them are from one to five years back in their growth. Children of eight years old have not reached the normal size of two and a half. They are just learning to stand alone. Others almost as old can not yet stand on their feet. Their arms, and legs, and spines, and chests are twisted and warped. The flesh and skin are shriveled on their bones. It is suprising that life can still exist there. If they can have food they will gradually regain their health and strength, but with most of them it is a question of now or never. Starvation and tuberculosis will not wait.

In Poland alone a million five hundred thousand such children must be cared for. In Latvia and Esthonia the people are living mostly on a diet made from potato-flour, oat-flour, and sawdust. In Czecho-Slovakia, in Hungary, in Austria and in other countries of central and southeastern Europe, two millions more are in dire need of food; and who stops to ask regarding creed, or race, or nationality when a little child is starving? Children are just children the world over, and the great American heart is big enough to care for them all.

But the appeal now is not for all. The three and a half millions of children in immediate danger of starvation, if this organization fails, who must have food at once, are only a fraction of the total number. The hungry children of those destitute countries have been examined by competent physicians, and only those whose wasted little bodies are reduced to the minimum weight, and whose endurance of hunger has reached the end which merges into actual starvation, are admitted to the American kitchens and given one meal a day. It is hard to turn away thousands of hungry boys and girls—to hear them ask pleadingly, "Do I weigh too much?" "Am I not thin enough?" "Can't I come any more?" But this restricting of food to the extreme cases is compulsory, because there isn't enough for all.

And those neediest ones can not reach the kitchens through the cold winds and the snow barefooted and in the pitiful rags which form only a partial covering for their bodies. They must have clothes. Each outfit consists of one pair of warm woolen stockings, one pair of boots, and a little overcoat. This one meal a day, and these boots, stockings, and little coats can be supplied only if we give them. If we do not, the slaughter of the innocents by cold and starvation will be appalling.

Among the more than two million men and women who will read this page there is not one—there can not be a single one—whose heart will not respond gladly and eagerly to the challenge of this great need. We are asked, you with us, to co-operate with Mr. Hoover in raising twenty-three million dollars to feed and clothe these children and save them from death this winter. It can be done. It shall be done! THE LITERARY DIGEST knows its readers and the deep earnestness, the quick sympathy, the great-hearted generosity they always show when any real human need calls to them. You have never been called upon in vain. We are counting on you now with a great confidence. We know, also, how truly you represent the American spirit, which beats in the hearts of a hundred and three millions more in this big land of plenty, a spirit which leaps ready at every such call, and is never weary in well-doing. We are not a hermit nation, isolated from the world, when suffering and want cry out to us from anywhere under the sun. A great, a beautiful, and heart-sustaining hope supports these stricken people—America will come to their relief. For in the far places of the earth, where famine stalks, one name and one alone is synonymous with rescue and hope—and that name is America.

The small individual unit of ten dollars will provide the coat and boots and stockings and one meal a day for one child this winter. We urge our readers—we urge every one whose eyes are on these words—to give quickly as many of these units as possible, to buy for themselves that precious and priceless thing, the life of a little child—as many of them as they can, and every one will be a shining star in an eternal crown. It was the Divine Love of the little children, who came to earth as a little child, and who reigns now as the King of Glory, who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me." He does not forget nor fail to reward.

So deeply do we ourselves feel the urgency of this great need, knowing all the facts, that we should feel a heavy burden of guilt if we did not go beyond anything we have felt possible heretofore in order to save these innocent children from suffering and death. Therefore, THE LITERARY DIGEST will start this fund with the sum of $25,000 to feed and clothe twenty-five hundred little boys and girls this winter. What an inspiration it will be to all of us—what an inspiration and example to many thousands who may be uncertain how much to give—if in the very first week there shall be a very great shower of checks for $1,000, for $5,000, for $10,000, as well as a deluge for smaller amounts, to send the fund rolling on toward the necessary twenty-three millions. Let us all see again what the father's heart is like in this great rich land of America. Let us have again a wondrous revelation of the heart of American motherhood. Let us have a great outpouring of love and helpfulness in the name of Him who said, "Feed my lambs!"

President-Elect Harding, in a Great-Hearted Response, Sets an Example for All Americans

In the midst of the flood of telegrams, telephone calls, and election returns pouring in upon him from every part of the United States, Mr. Harding turned from it all to write and dispatch the following telegram from his home:

THE LITERARY DIGEST, NEW YORK CITY:—

I have just now read your splendid appeal to the people of America in behalf of three and a half millions of unfortunate children in Central and Southeastern Europe who are the helpless victims of the Great War. Because such a movement for relief reveals the true heart of America, because it bespeaks an American desire to play a great people's part in relieving and restoring God's own children, I want to commend and support your noble undertaking. In seeking God's blessing for ourselves, I am sure He will bless us the more abundantly if we share our good fortune in acts of sympathy and human fellowship. I wish you a success which will reveal anew the unselfishness of our great people. I am forwarding you my check for two thousand five hundred dollars by mail today.

Marion, Ohio, November 4, 1920.

HIGH BOYS CLASH;
FIVE ARE JAILED

As a result of an encounter between students of the Georgia Military Academy and students of Tech High school, arising from the football game Friday afternoon between teams representing the two institutions, five students of Tech High school were arrested late Friday afternoon and held under bond on charges of disorderly conduct.

The prisoners taken were Oscar Sumner, aged 15, of 47 May avenue; B. E. Pearson, aged 16, of 47 May avenue; Arthur Shelton, aged 16, of 230 Euclid avenue; J. D. Harper, aged 16, of 407 May avenue; and E. H. Hall, aged 16, of 108 Highland avenue. Oscar Sumner was held at the juvenile detention house on Trinity avenue.

The boys were arrested by Call Officers Davis and McDaniel, after it was alleged that a number of school students had given chase to some of the G. M. A. students, who were on a dwelling on Williams street. The officers charge that the high school students forcibly broke into the house, and according to the prisoners, they had nothing to do with the house-breaking, but were merely spectators of the encounter.

MAY EXHUME BODY OF DOCTOR'S WIFE

Dr. Abercrombie Receives Telegram From Pennsylvania Physician, Adding New Angle to Shepard Case.

That there may have been unnatural cause for the death of Dr. F. Eugene Elmer's former wife, buried in Jacksonville, Fla., is the sensational development in the Shepard case investigation now being conducted at Port Valley, Ga., which was contained in a telegram received by Dr. Thomas F. Abercrombie, secretary of the state board of health, on Friday from a physician of Erie, Pa., suggesting that the body of the former Mrs. Elmer be exhumed and subjected to the same examination as that of Shepard.

The name of the Erie physician was not given out by Dr. Abercrombie, and he declared that he had never heard of him before. His connection with the case and source of knowledge are still a mystery in Atlanta. However, it is known that certain officials now working upon the case have found it necessary to go into Pennsylvania, as well as other northern states, in search of information.

Peculiar Circumstances.
An official interested in the case stated Friday that he had previously heard that the death of Mrs. Elmer was attended by some very peculiar circumstances. He declined to say just what those circumstances were.

Dr. Abercrombie, acting upon the ground that he had no jurisdiction in Florida, repeated the wife of the Erie physician to Dr. Ralph N. Green, commissioner of health for the state of Florida, in Jacksonville, Fla. Dr. Green was not in Jacksonville on Friday, rendering it impossible to learn what action would be taken upon receipt of Dr. Abercrombie's telegram.

The telegram from Erie reads: "Dear Doctor:—Have just read in the papers of the death of Dr. Elmer's former wife, buried in Jacksonville, Fla., and exhumed and examined the same as Shepard."
The date of Mrs. Elmer's death is unknown at present. Dr. Edgar Everhart, chemist now engaged in tests on the viscera of Shepard, stated Friday that the poisons ordinarily used can be detected even several years after death.

Work Not Completed.
Dr. Everhart had not completed his work upon the Shepard viscera

Friday night, but expected at that time to render a report some time this morning to Dr. M. R. Brown and Dr. Harry Neal, both of whom are making the analysis in his private capacity. Frederick E. Shepard was a millionaire fruit grower of Houston county. He married Mrs. L. H. Shepard, of Perry, last December. They made their home at Port Valley. Last May Mr. Shepard was taken violently ill and died in a hospital in Macon subsequent to an operation. It is now alleged that during his illness symptoms indicating poison were evident.

During Mr. Shepard's illness Dr. F. Elmer, of Jacksonville physician, said to be a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Shepard, is reported to have been in attendance upon Mrs. Shepard's mother. Other reports state that he attended Mr. Shepard during the first portion of his illness, having been a visitor in the Shepard home at that time.

Reports vary from six weeks to five months as to the time which elapsed after Mr. Shepard's death before the marriage of Dr. Elmer and Mrs. Shepard. The couple then removed to Jacksonville, Mrs. Elmer having taken over the major part of the estate.

The appearance of an unexpected will making other disposition of the estate, valued at $2,000,000, led to a coroner's inquest, the exhumation of the body and the investigation now being made by Dr. Everhart. The case has attracted wide attention in the business circles of the Macon, Perry, Port Valley and Jacksonville, where official activities have been great.

WORLD EXPOSITION PLANS IS BOOSTED

Leading Atlantans Enthusiastic Over Movement to Hold International Fair Here.

If Atlanta citizens generally share in the enthusiasm displayed by the world's fair committee of representative Atlantans holding its first meeting in the council chamber of city hall Friday morning, this city will be the site of a great world exposition in 1925.

A resolution favoring the momentous undertaking introduced by Lee Ashcraft was unanimously adopted, and the body accepted a motion authorizing the appointment of a committee of five to lay the proposal before civic and industrial organizations and prominent citizens to learn their attitude toward an exposition of world magnitude.

Councilman R. A. Gordon, the author of the proposition, was empowered to name the committee, which he announced he will do later.

Will Require Immense Sum.

There was concert of expression from those in attendance on one fact, that it will require an immense sum of money to acquire the site, erect the buildings and conduct the exposition. Estimates varied, but an average placed the amount at about $5,000,000.

There was also unanimity of opinion that the time is ripe for a world's fair, and that if Atlanta and the southeast want it, right now is the opportune time to start preparations.

Mayor Key, who spoke first, declared that Atlanta must not attempt to hold a fair on a small scale; that if it is decided to hold one, it must be done thoroughly, in a way to compare favorably with all the other great fairs held in the country.

In Favor of Plan.
Following him, H. G. Hastings, president of the Southeastern Fair association, took the floor and asserted that he had talked to a number of business men since publicity was given to the movement for a world's fair a month ago, and without exception they were enthusiastic in favor of the proposal.

He told of the tremendous support accorded according to Atlanta and the city had been the cynosure of the country's eyes during the past few months. He stated that he had found that the benefits should be infinitely greater from an exposition of world magnitude.

The same optimism prevailed in a talk by Ivan E. Allen, former president of the Southeastern Fair association. "I have talked to a good many men about this project," he said, "and so far I have found only one man who did not want Atlanta to tackle it."

"In my opinion, this is the time for this type of recognition. And it is the psychological moment in the history of Europe to be turned on this nation, and on this section, and on this state and this city. European eyes more than ever before are turned on America. It is pre-eminently the moment to focus them on the southeast."

$273,750 SUBSCRIBED FOR EXPORT COMPANY

Name Is Changed to Federal International Banking Company.

The Export corporation recently organized in New Orleans under the leadership of Robert F. Maddox, president of the Atlanta National bank, according to dispatches received in Atlanta, will be known as the Federal International Banking company, since that title more accurately reflects the institution's true function.

The announcement of the Central Bank trust company on Friday day of a subscription of $15,000, which will be made to the stock of the company, brings the total subscription to $273,750 from five Atlanta banking houses.

The board of directors will formally ratify the subscription at their next meeting next Friday, position countering the usual unexpected absence of Asa G. Candler, Sr., president of the bank. The bank of the state-at-large will be requested for the first time to subscribe at the meeting of the Georgia Bankers' association, called by President H. W. Martin for Tuesday in Macon.

The other tax use of titles in referring to the International Banking company has resulted in some confusion, bringing the purpose and function of the organization, as stated in The Constitution previously, into question.

It is stated that the bank is to extend long credit to exporters, thus enabling the latter to deal with foreign countries without the usual short terms are impossible. Under the Edge act such a corporation is forbidden to actually buy and sell commodities directly, but must afford the means for exportation.

Governor M. B. Wellborn, of the Federal Reserve bank, has written to the bank, stating that it is one of all banks which are members of the federal reserve system in the United States.

The text of Governor Wellborn's letter follows: "Gentlemen: A call has been made by the Georgia Bankers' association for a meeting of its members to be held at Macon on November 13."

"I would urge your bank, as a member of the federal reserve system, to have a representative at this meeting. The purpose of the meeting is to enlist the support of the banks in forming a foreign bank for the purpose of extending credit to exporters, thus enabling the latter to deal with foreign countries without the usual short terms are impossible."

"A short time ago the truck driver was sent to the Central Bank and Trust corporation to get $50,000 in $5,000 packages and bring it to the Federal Reserve bank. He was accompanied by a bank messenger and a driver. When the truck was on the rear of the truck, it is stated that when the negro delivered the load, bank clerks discovered that he had short $5,000. When questioned about it, he denied all knowledge of the missing package."

Bank officials believe that one of the packages became hidden under the truck at the time and that after he delivered the load of money he found the package and appropriated it to his own use.

Dickerson is said to have purchased an automobile, which fact caused him to believe he had stolen money. It is charged that when she threatened to make a charge against him to the authorities, he drew a razor and threatened to kill her and her mother.

DROPS EXPECTED TO LOWER TEMPERATURE

Cold Wave, Although a Little Late in Arriving, Is Surely Advancing, Asserts the Forecaster.

A temperature that will find the mercury well around a very cool degree is predicted for Atlanta Saturday morning, by C. F. von Herrmann, local weather forecaster, who says that the cold wave scheduled for Atlanta, though arriving a bit late, is surely advancing.

Just about like Friday, but several degrees colder is what Atlanta may expect Saturday, said he. Fine, cold weather, with no probability of rain, is the status of things.

Friday was such a beautiful day that the youth of Atlanta believed about noon that they were in the midst of spring and for more than an hour a crowd of old and young leaped over the railing of the Peachtree viaduct and jogged memories while they observed a most fascinating game of marbles in the cinders between the railroad tracks below.

Not much wind, and no rain, is expected to accompany the cold wave, which will arrive Saturday. It will be moderate and not painfully biting, according to the forecast. The weather bureau command, the foreboding manager of the section are looking forward to the great harvest in gate receipts. Grant, field anticipated, who record aggregation within its expanded stands to see the game between Georgia Tech and Georgia town.

Driver Is Indicted For Embezzlement Of $5,000 Package

Charles Dickerson, a negro truck driver for the Federal Reserve bank, has been indicted by the Fulton county grand jury on the charge of embezzlement, following the loss of a package alleged by officers of the bank to contain $5,000.

The negro was also indicted for assault with intent to kill his wife, who is said to have threatened to turn him up for stealing.

A short time ago the truck driver was sent to the Central Bank and Trust corporation to get $50,000 in $5,000 packages and bring it to the Federal Reserve bank. He was accompanied by a bank messenger and a driver. Macon, Ga., November 12.—(Special.)—Solicitor Charles H. Garrett announced today that he will not prosecute the charge of embezzlement against Eric L. Jones, chairman, appeared before Preston Arkwright, president of the Georgia Railway and Power company, Friday afternoon, presenting complaints on gas and street car service and received assurances of improved conditions.

Willingham Trustee To Be Given Hearing Before Judge Evans

Thief's Conscience Causes the Return Of $3,000 in Bonds

Macon, November 12.—(Special.)—T. B. McKilchie, who was temporarily removed as trustee of the Willingham warehouse, bankrupt, by an injunction signed by Judge Beverly D. Evans, left tonight for Savannah, where he will be given a hearing tomorrow before Judge Evans to show cause why his trusteeship should not be taken away from him. He was accompanied by his counsel, Judge A. L. Miller and Wallace Miller, and by a number of other lawyers from Macon and other parts of the state. Among them were F. P. Brock, O. A. Park, O. C. Hancock, E. B. Codrington and Frank Cooper, the latter of Atlanta.

Because McKilchie does not live in the judicial circuit and because he owns stock in the Shippers' Company, the principal creditors of the Willingham warehouse, three of the creditors have asked that he be removed.

RED CROSS AND HOME SERVICE.

Funds from the Red Cross roll call will be expended in a large part upon the Public Health Service in Atlanta, the local chapter of the Red Cross having made public an important feature of its peace nursing service in the community program.

That this fact is not generally known has been proven in the number of people who, when solicited for Red Cross membership, replied: "Now, that the war is over and the military hospitals are still open for the soldiers who have not recovered from war wounds, why should the Red Cross be taxed to do it, when the government is doing it?"

It is true the military hospitals are doing their part, and there is a supplementary work being done in this direction by the Red Cross, but in this connection two things must be remembered: First, the American Red Cross is a permanent organization, which is doing wonderful work in disasters, in peace times; and, second, since the war, when conditions showed the necessity for a better health service, the Red Cross determined to make as a feature of its peace program a public health service through the agency of district Red Cross nursing.

In Atlanta, since the first of July, when the nursing service of the Red Cross was initiated, more than 6,000 visits have been made by the seven Red Cross nurses comprising the home service corps.

These visits have been made in every district of the city and to people stricken with every form of disease. During the war, in the Red Cross home service work, it was found that in so many cases of illness, contagious or otherwise, there was actual need, more in the matter of nursing than for funds, food or fuel. People did not know how to follow a doctor's direction; did not know when to call a doctor; did not know how to care for the sick or prepare food for them.

In cases of typhoid fever, pneumonia and in maternity cases, it was discovered that nursing was needed to save many lives. There was no provision in Atlanta for the unfortunate, with incurable diseases, such as tuberculosis, cancer, etc.

With facts to prove the verity of these statements, the local chapter of the Red Cross, after due consideration of conditions in Atlanta, was convinced that the Red Cross could perform no better peace service than to establish a system of district nursing.

We publish today testimony of the nurses who are a part of the nursing service. Their reports show conclusively the need of the service, as well as the efficient and practical way in which it is done.

The success of this service and its extension and efficacy is going to depend largely upon the present roll call. If the roll call succeeds, there can be nurses added to the corps already in the field, and Atlanta's worthy people who need aid in illness will be directly benefited.

In lieu of the former method of giving assistance to the sick in the temporary way, they will be given aid by the Red Cross nursing based on the needs of the patients and lasting as long as may be necessary. Before these nurses are Red Cross nurses, with the supplementary training which the Red Cross requires.

In other words, the peace program of the Red Cross in its nursing service is to benefit needy people at home, and how far that benefit extends depends upon the membership which the Red Cross is calling for.

Let no one, through misunderstanding of where the funds will go, fail to give the $1 membership, for the money is going toward building up a practical and far-reaching public health service, which is very much needed.

AN APPEAL TO THE HEART.

An appeal to the heart—the great heart of American fatherhood and motherhood, and of human sympathy—is expressed in the splendid editorial from The Literary Digest, appearing in a full page in today's Constitution.

This gripping appeal for suffering little children touches the heart-strings. The portrayal of suffering and want and dire extremity will move to tears many a man or woman whose heart is responsive to a human cry of distress.

The Literary Digest's article in this direction was inspired by a recent personal representation by Herbert Hoover of conditions affecting three and one-half million children in the war-torn portions of central and southeastern Europe—little children who are wasting away from lack of food and raiment, and who are starving or faced with inevitable death from starvation and cold next winter unless they are quickly provided with the absolute necessities of life.

"And so when," says the editorial, "we received a letter from Mr. Hoover telling us that America must not allow death in the form of hunger and cold to come to these 3,500,000 helpless children our soul was stirred and the hot blood surged up in our heart, and the appeal was passed on to the American people and through the columns of The Constitution it is being presented to the prosperous, magnanimous, sympathetic, compassionate and generous-hearted people of the south.

The situation for the relief of which this appeal is made is one for which those who are the worst sufferers from it are in no possible measure responsible. It was brought about by the world war, and hundreds of thousands of the innocents now in distress were not even born when the war was begun.

It will not do to say "They are not our children," or "We had nothing to do with bringing them to this plight."

The point is simply this: The sufferers are innocent little children; and, as The Literary Digest aptly puts it, "children are just children the world over, and the great American heart is big enough to care for them all!"

If your neighbor's house burns, and his children are left cold and homeless, you do not consider the cause of the fire, nor who started it. You simply take the little sufferers in and do for them.

So it is in this instance: America is you; those little children of Poland, Latvia, Estonia, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, etc. are children of your neighbors whose homes and habitations have been burned and devastated by war; they are cold and hungry; and it is your Christian duty to do for them out of your bounteous plenty, without consideration of who was responsible for their plight.

It is to be hoped that not a single reader of The Constitution today will fail to read The Literary Digest's appeal and also that it will touch the heart of many as it did that of President-elect Harding, who immediately upon reading it dispatched his check for $2,500 to go toward swelling the fund of $23,000,000, which Mr. Hoover says "must be raised without delay" if the innocents for whom he pleads are to be spared from the ravages of hunger, cold and disease.

Everybody should give at least something to this fund.

With only one more election yet to be held in 1920, and with courage undaunted by all that it has passed through, our neighboring city of Decatur ought to be in shape to give its new commission form of government a fair and conclusive test.

Twenty-six ballots were held out in the New York election count; but they detracted so little from Mr. Harding's plurality that they probably will be scarcely missed.

Mr. Harding opposes an inaugural ball, but the country will not know whether there will be one until reports are received from the other side of the Harding house.

One thing about that world's fair idea, the more it is talked about the bigger and better it seems to be.

Mr. Debs having announced that he doesn't want a pardon, everybody should be perfectly satisfied.

What the Wind Told.

The Wind tells the children: "I'm out here, in the Night, Singing of a traveler, From bleak hills, ghostly white; He's coming, he's coming, Through all the shadows dim: Sleep, little children, Sleep, and dream of him!"

For long he has been dreaming Of where the children stay; He sees them in their cradles, He hears them at their play; The Christmas stars will guide him, With all their friendly beams: Sleep, little children, And you'll see him in your dreams.

"He knows that you are waiting Where Home his story tells, And merry Christmas bells; And so, he'll come to greet you Through all the shadows dim: Sleep, little children— Sleep, and dream of him!"

THANK YOU! PLEASE!

The "thank you's" and "pleases" that help to fill up this world are about the most wholesome and important articles that permeate existence.

I am always happier after leaving a neighbor in which I have been helped, and I feel that time of a happy thrill every time that a "thank you" is dropped from a tongue.

Many things are hard enough, but not to have when the "thank you" and the "please" step in. Courtesy is one of the great arts of the world.

Bigness is kindness raised to the nth power. We go to bed with our "thank you's" hidden in our hearts—and we awake to hear our "pleases" asking that they be taken for the day's journey with us. Or else we are sour beings, whom the world desires deeply not to note.

It costs nothing to say "thank you" or "please." But neither one costs can be bought. They are the first fruits of a heart which is not selfish, and which is not greedy.

The world needs millions more "thank you's" and "pleases" to mix in with its business of working and loving.

Bits of New York Life

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

New York, November 12.—There is a strange and distinct class of society in New York, born of an overwhelming desire to ape the rich. They provide meal tickets for the army of cheap poets, bum sculptors and the like domestic duties. Every Sunday her house is filled with these hangers-on. She provides food and drink for the weekly outlay is about $100. The husband is tired of it, but he loves his wife so he endures it.

The so-called "Master Mind" of the liquor traffic in New York has been arrested. A few years ago he was a ship's captain. Now he is a millionaire. When prohibition came he secured a $100,000 permit, which allowed unlimited removal from bonded warehouses of whisky and other liquors for medicinal use. It is charged that he was selling away with it so nicely that he sold to all comers—and then a prohibition agent came with marked money and he was arrested. He is now in jail, but he is not sorry. HEALTH TALKS

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

HEATERS AND VENTILATION.

A reader asks whether it would be unhealthful to use gas stoves in various rooms for heating purposes (owing to the coal situation) and to keep a window down an inch in each such room in lieu of pipe connection with the flue or chimney of the house.

It would be very unhealthful to depend on any such uncertain means of ventilation. The window would not be kept open if the weather became very cold.

Any known fuel burning in a room to produce heat must produce carbon dioxide gas. That gas is the same as the burnt air given off from the lungs of man and animals. With the ordinary limits carbon dioxide gas is the atmosphere of the living room or sleeping room is of no consequence, even what we might call involuntary ventilation, the seepage of air through the various cracks and crevices about doors and windows, serves to keep the proportion of oxygen and carbon dioxide gas about right, provided only the respiration of persons in the room is using up the oxygen and producing carbon dioxide.

But when you use a stove burning coal, wood, kerosene, gas or gasoline, ventilation must be freely provided lest harmful effects ensue. An oil lamp burning in a room uses up as much oxygen and produces as much carbon dioxide as a candle or eight persons would. Heating stove is equivalent to a large crowd of people in the room. Whether any smoke or any odor is produced or not, it is of the utmost hygienic importance that every such heater should have direct pipe connection with the flue or chimney to carry off the carbon dioxide. Carbon dioxide is not poisonous. But it will accumulate in sufficient proportion to crowd out the oxygen. It is how it produces the deleterious effects. Carbon dioxide is odorless. Therefore, it is no criterion of hygienic perfection if the heater without connection happens to give off no appreciable odor.

It is difficult to determine whether or the impairment of health suffered by so many housewives and others confined through the winter in rooms heated with stoves without direct pipe connection with the flue or chimney is due entirely to insufficient oxygen (too much carbon dioxide in the air) or whether it may be in part caused by the escape of carbon monoxide into the room. This latter gas is a powerful poison, accountable for many sudden deaths. It is being given off in the air by the heater. Minute quantities of it in an atmosphere may produce the same effects as a large quantity of it. It is a powerful poison, accountable for

CREMATORY PLANT
IN POOR CONDITION

Chief of Sanitary Department Asks the Board of Health to Order Necessary Repairs at Once.

Reporting that the crematory plant is nearly broken down and only one furnace is being operated, John Jensen, chief of the sanitary department, asked the board of health Friday afternoon to order necessary repairs and permit the department to dump refuse at the various dumping grounds pending their completion.

Garbage containing animal matter and green vegetable garbage will be incinerated at the furnace that is still running. This will about tax its capacity, said the chief, and rubbish of all other character will have to be hauled elsewhere until the other furnaces at the plant are rebuilt, cranes and buckets worked over and other repairs made. The chief estimated that it will require approximately $8,000 to restore the crematory in full running capacity. It will take two months for the work, in his opinion.

The board granted him permission to haul garbage to the dumps and took immediate steps toward putting the plant into full commission again, requesting an early and complete report from the superintendent on the repairs that are needed.

Women Take Prominent Part in Commissioners' Election Friday.

With a record vote polled, the "citizens" ticket won in the election of city commissioners, which was held in Decatur Friday. This ticket is composed of W. J. Dabney, Eugene Allen, Homer P. George, Guy Webb and R. E. White. They will be immediately sworn in, but will not assume office until the first of the year.

The women of Decatur voted for the first time Friday and considerable interest was aroused. Automobiles were kept busy all day long carrying voters to the booths and hot lunch was served close to the voting places. The best of feeling was shown during the whole day and residents expressed themselves Friday night as being well pleased with the whole result.

The vote given the candidates was as follows:

"Citizens" ticket—W. J. Dabney, 708; Eugene Allen, 685; Homer P. George, 683; Guy Webb, 634; Ray E. White, 611.

ALBUMS OF VIEWS
TO BE DISTRIBUTED
BY CUNARD LINE

Making only a nominal charge for them, the Cunard steamship line will soon distribute among the Atlanta school children a number of handsome albums of views, entitled "Around the World."

The book is a large one, containing pictures of various interesting and beautiful places reached by the lines of the great steamship company.

The pictures are in duplicate, one of each colored and one left to be colored by crayons or water colors. In addition to the pictures there is also a fine doublepage map of the world, showing the steamship lines and the various continents.

The division of the continents and the location of the world's prominent seaports and cities.

Aside from the art lessons to be gained from the work of coloring the views, the school children will get some fine practical geographical work from the location of the various countries, their capitals and principal seaports.

The books will be distributed by General Agent J. E. Miller, of the Cunard lines, corner of Poplar and Forsyth streets.

Mr. Miller has also a number of up-to-date atlases for use of school children, as well as grown-ups. These books, which are small and compact, are valuable for study as well as for travelers.

Fulton County Club
Prizes to Be Awarded
At Courthouse Today

Prizes awarded to members of Fulton county clubs, during the Southeastern fair held at Lakewood, the state fair held at Macon and several county fairs held in various parts of the state, will be delivered this morning at 10:30 in the county commissioner's room, fifth floor of the courthouse, by Harry L. Brown, county agricultural agent, and Miss Floy Shannon, county home demonstrating agent.

Over 100 prizes have been won by Fulton county club members this year. This is considered a fine showing by the county demonstrators. Five hundred members of the clubs will probably be present at the delivery of the prizes.

A special train is extended to anybody who is interested in the progress of the agricultural clubs in the state to be present at the meeting Saturday morning.

PLANS TO EXPEDITE
JURY BUSINESS MADE

Changes Will Save Taxpayers More Than $14,000 a Year, It Is Said.

Plans to expedite the jury business in the Fulton county courts were submitted Friday afternoon by Attorney Sam Hewlett, to members of the Atlanta Bar association at 3 o'clock. A meeting of the association was called last week and the following committee was appointed by the temporary chairman, John T. Smith to go into the matter and make a report: J. K. Jordan, J. A. Branch, Sam Hewlett and W. F. Jones. Another meeting of the association will be held this morning in Judge H. M. Reid's court room, after the adjournment of his court.

Plans submitted Friday, which, it is understood, will be adopted Saturday morning, include the rotation of juries from court to court in both the civil and criminal divisions of the superior court. Attorney Hewlett stated that this will save the taxpayers of the county from $14,000 to $16,000 per year.

He explained that it would work in this manner: If a juror was summoned to court in the criminal division and for some reason was disqualified—he would have to be paid for the day, anyway—that he could then be sent to one of the civil divisions and serve the day on that jury, thereby saving the county the money that would be paid a juror in the civil division. As it is now several panels are summoned in each division and those who are not drawn on the jury are dismissed for the day, but they are paid just the same.

Another plan that has been suggested is that no case, which will take more than a day to try be placed on the calendar for trial on Friday.

Bernhardt at Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., November 12.—(Special.)—Charles W. Bernhardt, president of the National Association of Builders' Exchanges, will come to Savannah, from Atlanta, Sunday to conferences here with local builders. He will be entertained at a dinner at Bannock's lodge Sunday evening.

ASPHALT SIDEWALKS
PLEASE CITY OFFICERS

So favorably impressed are city officials with the asphalt sidewalks on Delmar avenue and Ormewood avenue, constructed of this material some time ago as an experiment, that the street committee of council on Friday afternoon authorized other sidewalks of an asphalt mixture.

They are Whiteford avenue, from Fair street to the south Decatur car line; Whiteford avenue, from Boulevard-DeKalb to Hardee street, and Whiteford avenue, from the south Decatur car line to Boulevard-DeKalb. Concrete curbing on West Thirteenth street, from Crescent avenue to near Columbia avenue, and granite curbing on Maryland avenue, from Virginia avenue to Los Angeles avenue, was also authorized.

Asphalt sidewalks on Delmar and Ormewood avenues were the first of this material built in Atlanta, and are said to be among the first in the United States. The material is compound of asphalt, sand and chert. It is said to be cheaper, can be laid faster than tile or cement and makes a sidewalk of superior walking qualities.

Yes, the War Is Over, But the Poor and the Suffering We Have Always With Us

Figures are dry things.

It may not make a very deep dent on one's mind to be told that the Red Cross, during the War, furnished 387 million surgical dressings and garments to the hospitals and camps.

Or that it gave aid and comfort to 5 million fighting men, and to twice that many civilian sufferers and refugees.

Or that in three years 279 million dollars was spent by Americans through the Red Cross for the fighters and sufferers in foreign lands.

Does it touch you to be told that, through the Red Cross, virtually every man in the service of the United States who was blinded, or partly so in the service, has received or is receiving such treatment and instruction as will enable him to become independent to the greatest possible degree?

And, especially,— Do you know that here in Atlanta, today, the Red Cross is doing a remarkable work with its Health Centers, its Visiting Nurse System and its efficient service educating, relieving and curing the sick and distressed?

This is some of the "VALUE RECEIVED" that our own community is deriving from the local Red Cross.

You surely wouldn't grudge a dollar to carry on such a work—would you?

Are you concerned to know that last year 100,000 persons died in the United States as the result of accidents? And that it was to prevent such loss and the attendant suffering that the Red Cross First Aid Service is maintained?

Do you remember the West Point flood here in Georgia? Do you recall how the Red Cross was there almost at once to relieve and help?

Do you remember the Flu scourge here in Atlanta? Our great fire in 1917? Do you know what the Red Cross did at these times through its emergency agencies?

Do you know that during the 39 years of its existence the Red Cross has given relief in 250 floods, fires, tornadoes and other unavoidable disasters, expending 13 millions of dollars in this emergency work?

"Evil is wrought from want of thought
As well as want of heart—"

When you think seriously—just a moment—you will not, you cannot, you ought not, withhold your name from the list of those whose dollars are doing this mighty work.

Show your gratitude, your appreciation, your humanity, your spirit, by coming through TODAY.

Join the Red Cross!

Baseball Magnates Declare Peace After Short Meeting; Landis Given Chairmanship of them, although no vote was taken today.

Judge McDonald indirectly brought on the baseball war, for he started the baseball scandal which brought about the proposals for reorganization of control of baseball.

The Lasker Plan.

After the grand jury baseball investigation had developed so that it took in prominent men in many sections of the country, A. D. Lasker, a stockholder in the Chicago National league club, proposed that control of the game be placed in the hands of a national league.

more scandal. A letter was sent to all club owners, making this proposition: William Veck, John McGraw, Barney Dreyfus, Garry Herrmann and others signing it.

A meeting was called, and all the major league clubs, except the Washington, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Detroit and St. Louis American league clubs, sent representatives. At this meeting the eleven clubs went on record as favoring the Lasker plan and notified the other five clubs that unless they joined in the plan by November 8 a new twelve-club league would be formed. Lo Mendon, both factions returned, and when Johnson's side

Both sides presented the case to the public in a somewhat unimpressive manner. Kansas City, President Hayes previously had announced that he would support the "hands off" policy. President Johnson made a plea for neutrality and neutrality was what they fought they disagreed on very little and arranged today's meeting here.

OFFER OF MAGNATES ACCEPTED BY JUDGE

Chicago, November 12.—Federal Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis today accepted the offer of the "professional baseball" after it had been tendered him by unnamed sources.

Judge Landis was hearing a case in which $15,000 bribery in connection with an income tax was charged when a committee of eight club owners called on him. As the

He had com-mended this mission to him. When the were kept in waiting for 46 min-ute before the judge would listen to the offer that increased his annual salary $2000. At first the judge refused the offer.

The judge accepted the following offer:

"I have accepted the chairmanship of baseball on the invitation of the sixteen major league clubs. At their request, and in accordance with my own earnest wishes, I am to remain on the bench and continue my work here. The opportunities for real branded the Virginia Line as the best in the south, but the backfield was a negligible quantity and Vandy put over a touchdown and a field goal for their 10-to-5 win. The Old Dominion carries almost the same line-up in the forward positions with some added features on the backfield role.

(Special).—Virginia is favored in the hope to win the rubber game from the Commodores when they meet on Dudley field tomorrow in one of their historic battles for the deciding game preceding the discontinuation of hostilities after this year. Virginia poses a wonderful mine for the defense, and with a comparatively strong backfield will give the Commodores a hard battle. Georgia held the Old Dominion out of it to a scoreless tie last week, holding the Virginia backs under the half century mark for yardage.

The earlier season slaughters and is exhibiting a brand of football worthy of a Commodore machine. The fact that the team that held Alabama's greatest outfit of all times to a practically tie score was entirely green should inspire fear in the hearts of the team for next year when the Wandy team will return almost intact for their second year of football at Vanderbilt.

Worked Under Difficulties.

Coach McGugin has been laboring under great difficulties this season on account of early injuries and inexperience of the players for the entire team. Two line

Latham started the same line-up in many game during the entire season. "Doc" Kuhn, the diminutive star against the Alabamians, will most probably get another big opportunity against the Old Dominion team. Latham's weak ankle has scarcely strengthened enough since the Alabama scrap to permit his playing the full game. Latham will be Vanderbilt's only bid for all southern honors this season. If his in-ance for the remainder of the year. The Yankees' offense was in a real offensive quarter in the south, and had been able to plunge consistently into the south. In addition to being one of the best generalists in the entire south, the Yankees had a number of units, which Choro Berryhill performs for the Yankees. "Lafayette," the Yankees' defensive halfback, is a very good defensive halfback and a deadly tackler. His passing and kicking-off is a valuable asset to the Yankees.

The Vandy team gets a much-needed rest following the Virginia Tech game, and will be scheduled for the following Saturday. The game is at present doped for a "blue" victory day, but the Yankees coaches are confident of the chances of the annual Sewanee success. The Yankees will be in the off period until the final

Stock Market Rally Expected by Experts

BY R. L. BARNUM

New York, November 12.—Wall street as a whole was disappointed again today in the stock market. Every day this week the hope has been expressed before the opening that there would be a recovery of prices, if for no other reason, merely on technical conditions. But each day liquidation has been resumed. At the opening today prices were a fraction lower than last night's closing. Then there was a downward dip followed by a recovery. Around 11 o'clock, however, the steel and copper shares began to show signs of weakness. This was followed by a break of from 2 to 3 points in Atlantic Gulf, American International and other stocks which for the past ten days have been under severe selling pressure. After that the whole market turned weak. Then there was another recovery followed by another break.

Technical Rally Is Expected.

Some of the low priced rails were soft. New Haven was off 2 1/2 points on the announcement that the company was to issue a $80,000,000 blanket mortgage which will go, of course, ahead of the stock. Those who have been in Wall street through bull and bear markets alike are still expecting a rally on technical conditions. In such quarters the belief is expressed that following a rally there will probably be another downward movement to new low records for the year. Despite this belief, however, it is felt that the worst of the selling is over.

In such quarters it was pointed out today that based on its own speculative position there was no occasion for further selling in the stock market; that the stock market was already "over-liquidated;" that the decline that has taken place during the last ten days reflects conditions not in Wall street but outside in the general industrial world. In brief, it is believed that between now and the end of this year there is going to be much balancing of accounts in the business world and that the stock market is discounting what some of the statements will show.

Today's Break Worst in Some Time.

On the whole today's break in the stock market which ran from 2 to 3 points in rails and from 4 to 5 points in industrial was the worst since the downward movement began November 2. Call money opened at 9 and dropped to 8 at noon and then went back to 9. Time loans, not call, are the ones to watch. There will be no sustained improvement until money begins to accumulate and time loans ease off.

Goodyear Tire has just announced that the 15% reduction in the prices recently made to dealers will be passed along to consumers. It was learned today that the Toledo plants of Willys-Overland that have been closed for the past few weeks for stock taking will be opened on November 18. It was also learned that a number of automobile manufacturers have within the past few days increased their orders for parts.

As a result of the many inquiries received regarding details of Burlington's plans for readjusting capitalization a visit was made by your correspondent today to headquarters. It was learned there that on December 31, 1919, Burlington had a profit and loss surplus of $242,000; that capital assets at the close of the current calendar year will be approximately $550,000; that outstanding stock now amounts to $110,000,000 with the total bonded debt at $170,000,000.

Plans for Stock Distribution.

Under the proposed plan a part of the accumulated surplus of $242,000 will be capitalized through the issuance of $60,000,000 of new stock and $80,000,000 par value of new bonds. All but 290 of the $60,000,000 new stock will be given to the holders of the Burlington shares now outstanding. As holders of 98% of Burlington's stock Great Northern and Northern Pacific shareholders will get 98% of the new stock. Great Northern and Northern Pacific will also get 98% of the $80,000,000 bonds which are to be sold and the proceeds applied toward retirement of part of the $215,000,000 joint 4% collateral trust bonds maturing next July. That will leave $135,000,000 of the joint 4s issued twenty years ago by the Great Northern and Northern Pacific to acquire control of Burlington still to be provided for.

It is not known yet how this balance will be paid off. Most depends on the attitude of the Interstate Commerce commission in passing on the application now before it to authorize the issuance of $60,000,000 new Burlington stock and $80,000,000 bonds. The stock will be given to the holders of Great Northern and Northern Pacific as a dividend and the bonds will be sold and the proceeds given to those holders. After the profit and loss surplus has been capitalized to the extent of these two items $140,000,000 there will be total Burlington capital outstanding of $420,000,000 with the company's capital assets at $550,000,000.

Singer Declares 50% Dividend.

Whatever happens in general trade, that is through lean years and fat years the Singer Manufacturing company goes on declaring stock dividends to capitalize accumulated profits. Today the shareholders met and voted to increase the stock from $60,000,000 to $90,000,000 and declare a 50 per cent stock dividend.

As a result of the sharp decline in the prices of tin plate and steel billets this past week, the average price of eight leading steel products as compiled from the Iron Age shows another sharp decline. The average now stands at $76.30 per ton which compares with $79.73 last week, $82.64 a month ago, and $65.29 a year ago. In spite of this week's decline, the price of $76.30 now quoted by the independents is still far above the average quoted by the United States Steel corporation which is $63.49 for the same products.

Gold Pouring Into United States.

Gold is pouring into the United States in great volume. Today the steamer Adriatic unloaded 570 boxes of gold bars, the metal of which 250 boxes containing $9,500,000 were delivered to the Federal Reserve bank and the balance to Kuhn, Loeb & Co. The latter was carrying gold, bought on the open London market. The National City bank also announced today that its San Francisco agency had received $1,000,000 direct from Australia. Heretofore it is understood that the Australian gold was sold in London along with the Transvaal output.

For the year ending August 31, the Packard Motor Co., earned $4.51 a share on its stock with par value of $10 against $4.11 earned on these shares for 1919. That is a good showing but it does not take into account the change that has occurred since August 31. It was not until September 21 that Ford announced his cut in prices.

Market News and Views

Cotton Opinions.

S. R. Chapin.—The principal buying support has been in market here since the opening of this week has been from profit taking by local traders and others abroad. Clement Curtis—Until outside conditions show some improvement do not look for any sustained advance. Tynchens—Reports from spot markets are conflicting, some instances claiming recession in prices while in others stating that quotations are firm with a better demand. J. E. Bennett—On rallies caused by short covering would take the selling until there is change in general conditions.

Stock Opinions.

Clement Curtis—There has been good investment buying of selected stocks. Stein Aistrin—The buying demand on rails are still in order. J. E. Bennett—The buying demand on rails are still in order. J. E. Bennett—The buying demand on rails are still in order.

Grain Opinions.

Simons Day—Recent developments remain in hand and it will take some time for constructive developments to become operative in corn. The demand for wheat is different, which is encouraged by continued acreage stocks at terminal. Charles Slawer—Believe purchases on further breaks of corn are advisable, but would not hold on for good gains. Lamson Bros.—Lack of confidence and unfavorable financial outlook are the principal factors in causing remarkably low buying power.

Hubbard Warren—We still predict lower prices, not because we want lower prices, but because we think that prices can not go lower. Harris Withrop—On the whole, market has been steady for a while, at least, but there must be some buying if prices are to be held. It is suggested that some buying be made on the break.

Chicago—O'Brien says: The large selling of corn at opening was well taken and will probably steady market for a while; at least would be careful in making sales on this basis.
